

Safety in Riding Kindness in Training

Do you own a horse?

Did you ever wonder how to get more mileage out of that horse?

Next up is Mark and Dusty!

Mark is now training search and rescue teams nationwide to use his unique equine communication and specific maneuvers to help riders and their horses go farther down the most aggressive trails! Imagine what he can do for you!!

With the help of his very special horse Dusty, Mark will share with you the techniques he uses in his "Breaking the Language Barrier" clinic, where he demonstrates techniques for softer and gentler control. This training program is for everyone who owns a horse and wants to build a stronger relationship with more trust.

See how much farther you can get down the trail after Mark and Dusty show you how to build a connection you've never thought possible!
